

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 1897.

Local Brevities

Watch our window—Sulzer's.
See our line of shirts—Sulzer's.
Just keep your eye on Sulzer's.
See our line of fall ties—Sulzer's.
Look out for Lishen's new wagon.
See our line of golf caps—Sulzer's.
Oysters served in any style at the City Bakery.

Children's lunch baskets, 10 cents, at Sulzer's.

Fresh oysters and celery at the City Bakery.

Good tender meat always comes from Lishen's.

Still they go the $20.00 guns for $12.00, at Sulzer's.

Yard of roses, yard of Pansies in nice frame—Sulzer's.

Nice line of winter underwear, men and boy's—Sulzer's.

If in the market, fresh and good, Lishen will be sure to have it.

L. Green of Falls of Rough, sold to Horace Smith 17 short horn heifers for $400.

Quitting all the go, we are the headquarters for all kind of material—Sulzer's.

Fresh every morning, doughnuts, rolls and assorted cakes of all kinds at the City Bakery.

Rev. Donald M. Grant will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Powell and daughter, Miss Nannie, of Collinsville, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Oglesby.

Julius Sippel, proprietor of the City Bakery, says his sales of bread in this city, last week, reached 1,000 loaves.

The ladies of the Baptist church cleared $10 at their cake sale, Saturday, which was held in F. N. DeHay's store.

Prince Autumn now holds sway at our store. His royal highness invites you to come in and inspect his subjects—Sulzer's.

Donald M. Grant will continue his studies in Theology at the Louisville Theological Seminary. The term opens Friday, Oct. 1.

Z. T. Proctor, of Grayson county, was nominated by the Republicans at West Point, yesterday, for Circuit Judge in this district.

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church Thursday evening at 7:30. Led by S. G. Shelly, as Rev. T. V. Jones will not arrive by that time.

On account of Holiday, the Fair, One-price-store, will be closed for one day, Oct. 6, '97, but ready for business again the following morning.

Mr. John T. Compton, of Axtel, this county, was in the city yesterday, his first visit in ten years. He said he hardly recognized the old town.

The firm of Miller & Lightfoot have dissolved partnership, Mrs. Lightfoot having retired. All indebted to the firm please call at once and settle.

Rev. Donald M. Grant left this morning for Louisville to attend the fall meeting of Presbytery, which opened at the Warren Memorial church last night.

You have the pleasure of knowing, when eating bread purchased from the City Bakery, that it is made from the well known Columbia brand of flour.

Wilder & Hardin, dentist of Brandenburg, will be in Irvington to-day, Wednesday, and tomorrow. All those wishing first class dentistry should call on them.

Charlie Elder says he planted twelve acres of tobacco this year. It will make, he says, about 6,000 pounds. Last year he made on the same ground 12,000 pounds.

Wave Mattingly died at his father's residence in Hardinsburg, Sunday night, of consumption. He had only been ill for a short time, and was a prominent young man of that place.

Yesterday morning Marshall Hall arrested a woman, possibly 50 years of age, for being drunk and disorderly. She was one of the hardest looking characters that has ever struck town.

Rev. T. V. Jones who is appointed to fill the pulpit in the Methodist church, is a preacher of ability, and a most excellent man. Cloverport is fortunate to have him as one of her ministers.

Miss Ella Richardson, daughter of Mr. W. W. Richardson, of Louisville, is with Miss Jennie Warfield. Miss Richardson acted as bridesmaid in the LaHeist-Reid nuptials of last evening.

Rev. I. B. Timberlake, of New Albany, Ind., is in the city. He preached a most excellent sermon Sunday night at the Elm St. M. E. church, which was heard by a large congregation.

The brightest and happiest countenance ever worn by man, was that of Mr. Edward E. Kinsam, on last Thursday, Sept. 23. It was a bouncing boy, the first James Edward is his name.

The Louisville Dental Parlor, 544 Fourth avenue, Louisville, Ky., over the Avenue Theatre, is a reliable and first-class institution. Each operator is an expert in his line. There is a lady attendant always on hand, and some of our best people can testify to the very satisfactory work done for them at moderate prices.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Mr. A. A. Richardson to Miss Lola M. Norton, both of Garfield, to occur Tuesday, October, 5th, 1897, at the bride's home. Mr. Richardson is one of Breckenridge county's most substantial business men and highly connected. Miss Norton is quite beautiful, possessed with charming manners and comes from prominent parents.

LaHEIST - REID

Beautiful Wedding of a Prominent Couple.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

Miss LaFayette LaHeist and Mr. Lathrop Tracy Reid the Contracting Parties.

One of the largest and prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Cloverport was the marriage at 8 o'clock last evening of Miss LaFayette LaHeist to Mr. Lathrop Tracy Reid, at the Elm street Methodist church.

The church was decorated in potted plants and golden rod, and presented a thoroughly attractive and effective appearance.

The arrival of the wedding party was announced by the beautiful strains of the wedding chorus from Lohengrin, sung by twenty young ladies with Miss Ida White as organist. The groomsmen came in first, being led through the center aisle of the church by Dr. A. A. Simmons, who did it most gracefully. He was followed by the other groomsmen, who walked two together. They were Messrs. Eugene Vest and Hal Murray, Chas. White and Fred Fraize, Victor Bowmer and Orville Skillman, Jas. Fisher and Jas. Skillman, Chas. Moorman and Will Reid, coming in the order named and forming a semi-circle on either side of the altar. Then the groom appeared with his best man, Mr. James Gormly, of Bucyrus, Ohio, who took their places just in front of the chancel. Then came the bridesmaids, led by Misses Lula Owen and Linnie D'Hay, followed by Misses Ella Richardson and Lizzie Skillman, Georgia White and Josie Raitt, Jennie Warfield and Ora Leigh, Mayme Griffith and Elizabeth Bowmer. These stood just in front of the groomsmen, forming a double semi-circle. Little Jane and Ella Smith, sisters of the bride, as flower girls, came in next. The pretty maid-of-honor, Miss Francis Smith, immediately preceded the bride, who entered, upon the arm of her step-father, Dr. F. M. Smith, looking sweetly modest and charming, and joined the groom at the altar.

Rev. I. B. Timberlake, of New Albany, pronounced the beautiful Episcopal wedding ceremony in a most impressive manner, and as the words fell from his lips that gave to a noble, true-hearted man a faithful, loving wife, one chapter in the old story, ever new, was ended—another begun. The lover became the husband, the sweetheart the wife, and the sweetness of the first relationship is but a faint forecast of what the latter may become.

The bride's gown was of pure white moire velvet, with real lace. She wore no veil. The maid-of-honor wore a pink organdie, and the bridesmaids white Paris muslin, over different muslin, making a rainbow effect. They carried pink and white roses.

It was, indeed, a beautiful scene; the prettiness of the bridesmaids, enhanced by becoming dresses, for whom the handsome groomsmen formed an effective background, and the whole an appropriate setting for a charming bride and a splendid looking bridegroom.

Miss LaHeist needs no introduction in Cloverport, as she has spent all of her life here, and has always been a favorite. She has visited, too, in many Kentucky towns, where, by her gracious manner and many accomplishments, she has made herself deservedly popular. Having an unusually sweet voice, which has received the best of cultivation, besides an attractive personality, she has been especially welcome wherever she has gone, and a credit to her mother, who was Miss Mattie Board, in her girlhood a noted Western Kentucky beauty and belle. Her father, Mr. LaFayette LaHeist, was a descendant of an aristocratic French family, and her ancestors on both sides were among the earliest settlers and best citizens of Cloverport, while she is one of the charming old town's fairest daughters.

Mr. Reid is a native of Bucyrus, Ohio, his father being a wealthy grain merchant of that place, and has been, since he came to Kentucky nine years ago, an employe of the L. & N. St. L. railroad. He is a nephew of Messrs. A. M. and J. K. McCracken, the managers of the road. By his geniality and many honorable qualities, Mr. Reid has made a number of friends since he came to Cloverport, whose people claim him as one of them.

After the wedding service at the church, a reception was given at the bride's home, to which a large number of invitations had been issued, and those present experienced charming hospitality and a most delightful entertainment. The house was prettily decorated in golden rod and all the bridesmaids and groomsmen assisted in receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid will leave this morning for Louisville, where they will spend a day and then they will go to Nashville, where Mrs. Reid has been asked to sing at the Centennial. After spending a short while in Nashville, they will go for a month's visit to Mr. Reid's parents in Bucyrus, Ohio.

The news extends congratulations and best wishes.

Our store is a bargain field for prudent buyers—Sulzer's.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Georgia B. Hawkins, of Stephensport, to Mr. W. H. Sargent, of Fordville, Ky., Wednesday, October 5th, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., in the Baptist church at Stephensport.

Mr. Lathrop Tracy Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reid, arrived Monday from Bucyrus, Ohio, there home to be present at the marriage of their son to Miss LaFayette LaHeist last evening.

Educate Your House With Castoria. Castor Oil, pure, constipating, foreign. 10c, 25c. H. C. C. Co. All druggists refund money.

Purely Personal

Mr. Ferd Owen, of Glendene, was here Monday.

Mrs. Mary Arnold, of Owensboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank Siefert.

Mrs. Geo. Fetter and children returned to Louisville, their home, last Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Rhodes, of Irvington, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Florence Lewis.

Mr. D. W. Williams, of Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Holt, the guest of Miss Nellie Burks.

Mrs. W. M. Mattingly, after a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, has returned to her home in Hardinsburg.

Mr. Alfred Taylor and family, of Rosetta, arrived in the city yesterday evening. They will be the guests of relatives and friends while here.

Mrs. Elvira Babbage, after an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Eliza Taylor, of Rosetta, and friends in Louisville, came home Sunday night.

Miss Helen Armstrong has returned from the Falls of Rough, where she has been visiting Miss Jennie Green, says the Louisville Post. The latter will spend the winter in Louisville attending school.

W. B. Wells, of Whitesville, and W. E. Whitley, of Owensboro, were in the city Monday. They were here with the view of purchasing tobacco in this county, if the crop turned out any ways favorable.

Courtesy P. Babbage who has been working in Louisville, came home Saturday night quite sick. He has symptoms of typhoid fever. His wife and two sons, Hamilton and Charley, are also sick with chills.

GLENDEANE.

Mattingly Hotel is bright with its new coat of paint. Mr. Westerfield paints the new butcher shop this week.

Miss Maggie Lewis of McDaniel's will assist Miss Alma Mattingly this week.

Twenty-six children took the first communion at Long Lick church Sunday. They will be confirmed in October.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hardaway, of Bewleyville, came down Saturday to visit Mrs. D. C. Moorman. They will also visit Mrs. Frank Peyton at Falls of Rough.

Mrs. George Willis, an invalid for years, died suddenly last Thursday. The sad summons to hasten home came to two of her children at school. She was buried near her home.

Dr. Moorman, of Irvington, was here last week on a professional visit.

Miss Beulah Bennett, Irvington, and Mrs. Wayne, of Daviess county, visited at Mr. Jesse L. Owen's last week.

Miss Lena Hensley, of Hardinsburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Irene Board.

Mrs. Dick Owen, accompanied by Master Harry Moorman, left Monday for the Nashville Exposition.

Mrs. W. R. Moorman is visiting her parents at Millwood this week. She will also attend the Association in session over there.

No, no we don't doubt Bre' Babbage's democracy, not one bit. He's tried and true. And friends, isn't he pursuing the right course in keeping the News pure and free from violent, vituperative, scurrilous attacks? Mud slinging and personal insults are getting rarer in campaigns. Our editor is right. Why for the next two months say hard things and offend feelings of good people, till the next four years will not heal these useless wrongs? We are none the less of our politics by being careful not to offend the enemy. We're friends and kinsmen together and should be considerate of each other's feelings though there is no compromising politics.

Members of the Rock Lick church are going to fence the building before the Bishop's visit next month.

Mattingly moved their sawmill to Mr. Ferd Owen's this week.

Several young mules were sold to Grayson county men at from $30 to $40 each, last week.

Mr. Lewis Ashley will supply people with tobacco seed next year. He has about 1,500 seed plants in full bloom. His tobacco field presents a flowery appearance.

UTOPIA NOTES.

Miss Mary Peyton, Falls of Rough, entered school Monday.

Ollie Hoskins, little daughter of Perry Hoskins, was sick last week and away from school.

The patrons are putting a side walk from town to the schoolhouse. This is an improvement much needed.

Miss Eva Hensley and Messrs. John Haswell and T. Harmon were among our visitors last week. The gentlemen gave good talks at general examination Thursday morning.

Miss Mary Blanford's recitation was the feature of Friday's literary.

Robert Moorman, Miss Mary Moorman and Henry Moorman deserve mention for specially good work the first month of school.

Medal offers are made to the school this week. Two of our former winners, Robert Moorman and Paul Dempster, excluded from the contest. Their friends will see from coming reports that their standing will be good, equal to the best without "free silver" or "sound money" gold medals.

Miss Beulah Moorman was absent last week on account of sickness.

We have a good graduating class this, the largest we've ever had.

THE CANDIDATES WEDNESDAY.

They've come, a jolly, good-looking, good-natured set. A good crowd greeted them and enjoyed their speeches, appeals for votes, anecdotes, jokes, repartees. In short, they're a fine set of good men and their coming makes a happy occasion for any neighborhood. We feel that these notes should be added:

John Haswell is the handsomest man. Bill Minor is the most graceful man.

Ruben and Gus are a strong team and are drawing features.

Mr. Lennin is one of the best orators of the crowd.

Hardin has fine voice, makes a good speech and leaves a fine impression.

Editor Babbage is going the rounds, collecting, adding new names, and enjoying himself immensely.

Utopia turned out in force and her fair daughters received many compliments from the score of candidates.

Messrs. Bob Jolly and Chas. Royalty are up-to-date with their cards containing announcements and photographs. Let all the candidates do this.

There were a great many ladies in attendance and all seemed to enjoy the afternoon.

The crowd was too big for Utopia Hall, so the grove near by was used. Perfect order prevailed.

Driskell and Harmon led in neat speeches.

Cyrus Miller drove down from Hardinsburg with his fair cousin, Miss Lizzie Miller.

Sheriff Pate was here collecting taxes and telling to the girls.

Sherman Ball and Reuben Miller and Johnnie Haswell were styled the handsome trio.

Young Mr. Dockery, of McDaniel's, was here to hear the candidates.

Gus Brown can make more faces, get into more shapes, use more earnestness and send conviction farther than any other man of the set.

Burton, the only, the original, the oratorical Basterfield is in his happiest mood and is saying some excellent things, but Dick Owen has running qualities that will place the coveted office in Democratic hands.

Twenty-six candidates took dinner at the Mattingly House. At night they scattered and tackled the dear voters in their homes.

They told us that they had the best order and the closest attention here that they had had anywhere in the canvass.

Sherman Ball and John Haswell should make a canvass in Colorado or some other woman's suffrage state. They hardly notice the voters, the males, here.

Dick Owen received more applause than anybody else.

John Beeler is a capital hand at making gestures.

Burton's suggestion that the school children take lessons in the "rudiments of elocution," was good.

Burton's originality and happy expressions are enjoyed even when they are against you. But my! he's an awful Republican, though he does argue himself entitled to Populists votes.

A Progressive House.

In going the rounds, this week the News representative had an occasion to drop in an inspect the saddlery shop of Mr. Frank Haswell. There to his surprise, found the most complete assortment in every detail of that class of goods ever handled in Cloverport. His line of harness comprising many different styles could not be of better make, which is all strictly hand work. There is on exhibition a double harness which is simply the work of art and should be seen by every farmer and user of that kind of goods. The time, had been when nearly everyone was compelled to seek other points for their purchases in this respective line. That day has now passed. At his establishment you will find every article pertaining to this branch of business. The News takes pleasure in stating, that no other place will you get better treatment, fairer dealings and more satisfactory prices. If you contemplate making any purchases your time will not be lost in examining Mr. Haswell's stock of harness, saddles, collars, collar pads, bridles, &c.

Our fall line of wraps are the pick from a large cloak concern. See them before you make your purchase—Sulzer's.

Public Speaking.

The candidates for the State Senate in the Tenth Senatorial District will speak at the following times and places:

Hancock County.

Hawesville, Monday, Oct. 4.

Pateville, Tuesday, Oct. 5.

Pellville, Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Chambers, Thursday, Oct. 7.

Pewees, Friday, Oct. 8.

Lewisport, Saturday, Oct. 9.

Breckenridge County.

Hardinsburg, Monday, Oct. 11.

Cloverport, Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Rock Vale, Thursday, Oct. 14.

McDaniel's, Friday, Oct. 15.

Bowleyville, Saturday, Oct. 16.

Moodyville, Monday, Oct. 18.

Garfield, Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Meade County.

Wolf Creek, Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Paynesville, Wednesday, Oct. 20.

Guston, Thursday, Oct. 21.

Flabery, Friday, Oct. 22.

Garnettsville, Saturday, Oct. 23.

Brandenburg, Monday, Oct. 25.

Mrs. E. T. Bandy, of Union Star, spent last Thursday and Friday with her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Kinsam, at the Mitchell house.

CASTORIA.

We always give you pressed down, overflowing measures of value for every dollar's worth you spend with us—Sulzer's.

BEWLEYVILLE.

W. H. Cain, Jr., will be a grand juror at Brandenburg this week.

Mr. Eliza Smith has the banner apple orchard.

Relatives of Mr. D. Johnson were guests of his family Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Cain got into a tussle with a mule one day last week. Fortunately he came out of it unhurt, only creating a small sensation.

Roy Cain, who has been severely afflicted with hay-fever every summer for a number of years, finding no relief from any source, is now enthusiastically rendering in malarial districts, Tutt's Pills are indispensable, they keep the system in perfect order and are an absolute cure for sick headache, indigestion, malaria, torpid liver, constipation and all bilious diseases.

To those living

Tutt's Liver Pills

his praises to Dr. Lon Moorman, of Irvington, whose treatment has given him the long sought relief.

Miss Maggie Blanche Jolly went off visiting Wednesday night.

Women's Missionary Society met in the Methodist Church Wednesday, P. M.

A good attendance and excellent meeting. Quite a quantity of apples is being shipped from Meade county now. Apples are selling at Guston for $1.00 per barrel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blisset, of Jefferson county, are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blisset.

Miss Blanche Jolly returned from her visit at Chenault Friday.

Mrs. Alonzo Bennett and Mrs. George Paul were the guests of Mrs. Morton Friday.

Prof. Allen Stith has given up his farming, and begins a school at Persimmon Flat, Monday, Sept. 27.

Miss Mary Blanford, one of our nicest, sweetest girls is away at Glendene attending school. Her place in our midst refuses to be filled, but our loss is to be her gain, so we grant her our sincere good wishes for success.

Golden Rod.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The famous signature of Dr. H. H. Hatcher is on every wrapper.

WANTS.

Miscellaneous small advertisements. Wanted For Sale, Lost, Found, Etc., inserted under this head at the uniform rate of one cent a word each insertion.

WANTED—100,000 poles and hoops; hickory, spruce, birch and oak timber and rock. For further information apply to CHAS. MAY, West end Iron Bridge, Cloverport, Ky.

SEALED BIDS will be received by me for a wooden bridge over Tar Fork Creek, near Logansburg, in this county until the 5th day of Oct. 1897. Said bids to be opened at the County Court House at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the 5th day of October, and to be subject to the order of that court for acceptance or rejection. Plans and Specifications on file in the County Judge's office in Hardinsburg.

R. N. MILLER, Comm. at Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. and 1897.

WANTED—5000 bushels of all kinds, 1,000 bushels of durum. Send sample of peaches you have to sell. Prepay charges, all railroads and steamboats make special freight rate on fruit. Address: Blue Grass Canning Company, Owensboro, Ky.

OPIUM and Whiskey Habits cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent FREE. DR. M. W. WOLLEY, M. D., 101 N. 3rd St., Chicago, Ill.

Why Rent When You Can Own?

You rent year after year, and have no farm when you get through. The land-lord has your money and the farm at the end of the year. We offer you Ohio River Bottom land, in Ballard county, one of the best counties in Kentucky, on the following reasonable terms:

SIX YEAR PLAN.

50 acres at $14.00 per acre.....$700.00

Cash.....$50.00

First Year, $20.00 per acre.....25.00

Second Year, $1.00 per acre.....10.00

Third Year, $2.00 per acre.....20.00

Fourth Year, $2.50 per acre.....25.00

Fifth Year, $3.00 per acre.....30.00

Sixth year, $4.00 per acre.....200.00

Total cost of 50 acres.....$700.00

This land produced the past season of 18